YOUR APPLICATION AND THE PUBLIC RECORDS ACT

From the moment we receive your application, it becomes a public document subject to the Public Records Act (RCW 42.56) and other Washington laws. The Commission may disclose to the public, other state or federal agencies, or discuss at a public meeting all information set forth in this application and all supplemental information submitted. The Commission responds to public document requests through a Public Disclosure Request process. In the unlikely event that the Commission receives a public disclosure request regarding this application or the license file established, you may request in writing, that the Commission notify you of such request as provided in RCW 42.56.540.

OATH OF APPLICATION

I declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of Washington, that all information provided on this application is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that untruthful, misleading, or incomplete answers whether through misrepresentation, concealment, inadvertence, or mistake, are cause for administrative closure or denial of my initial application or revocation of any gambling license(s) currently held. I agree to notify the Gambling Commission if any information required on this application or on my Personal / Criminal History Statement changes or becomes inaccurate and / or if any criminal or civil actions be filed against me during the application or licensure period. I understand that if I fail to make such notification that failure may constitute grounds for denial, suspension or revocation of my application or license(s). I understand that if I voluntarily withdraw or if the Commission administratively closes my application, the remainder of my fee, minus the Commission's processing and investigative costs, will be refunded. See WACs 230-03-040, 230-03-055, 230-06-080, and 230-06-085.
