Rules and dealing procedures.
This game uses a six deck shoe only .

The game is blackjack with a side bet . The blackjack portion of the game may be dealt with any rules approved in the state of Washington .

The side bet works as follows Minimum is 1$ the maximum may be set by each Casino within state limits. Each Casino may set their own maximum aggregate payout as long as the minimum aggregate of $5,000.00 is met. Each casino may decide if they want to allow the player to play more on the side bet than the hand. If they choose to let a player bet more on the side bet they may limit how much more example. 2 times the amount bet on the hand .

After dealing every player 2 cards and 2 cards to the house, the dealer flips over their "up card"

Next, the dealer will take the next 4 cards out of the shoe and lay them face up to the right of the house up card.

The players first 2 cards of their blackjack hand and the dealers up card along with the 4 card flop make the players Texas 21 hand Using those 7 cards the player makes the best five card hand .Starting from the dealers right (3rd base) all bets are paid or taken in turn according to the following pay table.
