Re: Mega Stacker Lite

Dear Ms. Timberlake,

Thank you for submitting the Mega Stacker Lite amusement game, manufactured by LAI Games, to us for review. We have completed our review.

It is my understanding the game plays as follows:

Players use the stop/start button to stop moving blocks on top of the blocks in the previous level. Each level gets progressively harder as the player stacks the blocks. Once the player reaches the ticket level they receive a minor prize and can move on to attempt to win the major prize.

During the review, it was noted there is an option on this game where players make a decision to forfeit the minor prize to move on to attempt to win the major prize. You were advised that this option is not allowed in Washington. WAC 230-12-130 states that operators must not allow winners to forfeit previously won prize(s) in exchange for another play.

The Mega Stacker Lite game meets the definition of an amusement game (RCW 9.46.0201) and is approved for use as a Group 5 Hand/Eye Coordination (WAC 230-13-035) amusement game in Washington State.

Please be advised that any modifications to the Mega Stacker Lite amusement game software or associated equipment must be provided to us for additional testing and review. In addition, amusement games operated in Washington must not have settings that allow the operator to control the outcome of the game (auto percentaging). The approval of this equipment may be rescinded at any time if problems are found by the Commission or changes to the Washington Administrative Code (WAC) impact this approval. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Sonja Dolson at (253) 671-6283.

Sincerely,

Mark Harris
