Re: Piñata Amusement Game

Dear Ms. Timberlake,

Thank you for submitting the Piñata amusement game, manufactured by LAI Games, to us for review. We have completed our review.

It is my understanding the game plays as follows:

Players use the bat to hit the drum on the game to try to break the Piñata on the screen before time runs out. The force applied to the drum is translated into the game, damaging the Piñata on screen. When the Piñata breaks, players are awarded tickets or candy and they move onto the next Piñata. There are four Piñata's per game, each with a higher difficulty. Players may insert additional money to continue playing the game once time runs out. Prizes are awarded after each Piñata breaks.

The Piñata game meets the definition of an amusement game (RCW 9.46.0201) and is approved for use as a Group 5 Hand/Eye Coordination (WAC 230-13-035) amusement game in Washington State.

Please be advised that any modifications to the Piñata amusement game software or associated equipment must be provided to us for additional testing and review. In addition, amusement games operated in Washington must not have settings that allow the operator to control the outcome of the game (auto percentaging). The approval of this equipment may be rescinded at any time if problems are found by the Commission or changes to the Washington Administrative Code (WAC) impact this approval. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Sonja Dolson at (253) 671-6283.

Sincerely,

Mark Harris
