TIGER Pai Gow

How to Play

Tiger Pai Gow is played with a standard 52 card deck plus 1 joker. Total cards equals 53.

Tiger Pai Gow is made up of 3 games: the standard game of Pai Gow Poker with an optional tie breaker and house choice of 2 of 3 bonus wagers.

For the rules on standard Pai Gow Poker, please reference the game rules as posted on the WSGC website.

Card room operators must not allow wagering limits to exceed the authorized limits set out in WAC 230-15-040 and WAC 230-15-140.

BONUS WAGERS:

- 1) The Yin or Yang bets are based on wagering on the color Red or Black. (only one of these bets will be in the game)
- 2) The Seven Card Tiger bet is based on a 5 or 7 card hand ranking.

All players make a mandatory wager on the standard game of Pai Gow Poker OR Pai Gow Poker with Breaker card. (Rules on next pages)

All players have the option to wager on any of the offered bonus games. (Yin Bet or Yang Bet plus the 7 Card Tiger Bet)

After all wagers are placed, the dealer deals 7 cards to all 6 player positions and 7 cards to the dealer's position.

Total cards dealt equals 49.

There are 4 remaining cards.

- 1) If the Yin Bet is included in the game, dealer will use 1 card as the Breaker Card and the other 3 cards for the Yin bonus wager.
These 3 cards are laid out face down in front of the dealer.
- 2) If the Yang Bet is included in the game, dealer will use 1 card as the Breaker Card and the other 3 will be discarded.

After all players have arranged their cards into the two standard Pai Gow Poker hands:

If the Yin Bonus Wager is included in the game, that game will be played and settled first. (Rules on next pages)

The dealer will now turn over his 7 cards and arrange them into 2 hands by house rules.

Dealer will then turn over the Breaker Card.

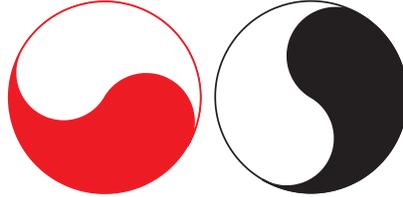

Dealer will turn over the cards of the first player to the dealer's right.

Dealer will play and settle player's Yang bonus wager (if included in game), 7 Card Tiger bonus wager and Pai Gow Poker bet or Pai Gow with Breaker Bet. (Rules on next pages)

Dealer will continue to the next player in the same method until all bets are settled.

YIN & YANG BONUS WAGERS

Yin Bonus Wager Odds

This is a Pai Gow Poker bonus wager that uses the 4 remaining cards after all cards are dealt to the players and dealer. The dealer will use 1 card for the Breaker Card and the other 3 for the Yin bonus game. To play, the player will wager on either Red or Black before any cards are dealt. If the majority of the 3 cards are the color the player wagered on, the player wins even money except when 1 of the 3 cards is the Joker, then all wagers lose.

BREAKER CARD

BET ON 1 ONLY

Player must wager on either standard Pai Gow Poker or Pai Gow Poker with Breaker Card.

Player must place one of these bets, but may not place both bets.

House Option: House may offer players only one bet: either standard Pai Gow Poker or Pai Gow Poker with Breaker card.

The Breaker Card is 1 of the 4 remaining cards in the deck after all cards are dealt to all 7 positions - 6 players and the dealer.

The Breaker Card will determine a winner if:

The player wagered on Pai Gow Poker with Breaker Card.

The player wins one hand and the dealer wins one hand, which is known as a push.

The Breaker Card is played using the color of the card.

If the Breaker card is used, player or dealer with the most matches to the Breaker Card by color will win the game.

If player and dealer have the same number of matches to the Breaker Card by color, the game remains a push.

If the Breaker Card is the Joker, the game remains a push.

House option: The house has the option to pay a player a bonus if all 7 of the player's cards match the Breaker Card.
