I.

The Washington State Gambling Commission issued Cameron Hollis, the following license: Number 68-22233, authorizing Card Room Employee activity, formerly at Chips Casino and Palace Casino, Vancouver. The license expires on July 10, 2010, and was issued subject to the licensee's compliance with state gambling laws and rules.

II.

Rick Day, Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, charges the licensee with the following violation(s) of the Washington State Gambling Act, 9.46 RCW, and WAC Title 230.

The licensee was convicted on November 2, 2009, of Assault 4th Degree, Domestic Violence. He was sentenced to a two-year suspended sentence, with five days confinement, credit for time served, and 24 months of probation. On October 12, 2009, the licensee was charged with Domestic Violence - Violation of a No Contact Order. The licensee has the following additional criminal history:

March 1, 1995 - The licensee was convicted of two counts of Robbery in the First Degree, and two counts of Robbery in the Second Degree.

March 4, 1994 - The licensee was convicted of Theft in the First Degree.

The licensee disclosed the 1994 and 1995 convictions in his initial Washington State Gambling License application in 2005. The licensee has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence the necessary qualifications for licensure as required by RCW 9.46.153(1). Under RCW 9.46.075(1), (3), (4), and (8) and WAC 230-03-085(1), (2), and (5), grounds exist to suspend or revoke Cameron Hollis' license.

RCW 9.46.075 states:

The Commission may deny an application, or suspend or revoke any license or permit issued by it, for any reason or reasons, it deems to be in the public interest. These reasons shall include, but not be limited to, cases wherein the applicant or licensee, or any person with any interest therein: (The following subsections apply.)

(1) Has violated, failed or refused to comply with the provisions, requirements, conditions, limitations or duties imposed by chapter 9.46 RCW and any amendments thereto, or any rules adopted by the commission pursuant thereto, or when a violation of any provision of chapter 9.46 RCW, or any commission rule, has occurred upon any premises occupied or operated by any such person or over which he or she has substantial control;

(3) Has obtained a license or permit by fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, or through inadvertence or mistake;

(4) Has been convicted of, or forfeited bond upon a charge of, or pleaded guilty to, forgery, larceny, extortion, conspiracy to defraud, willful failure to make required payments or reports to a governmental agency at any level, or filing false reports therewith, or of any similar offense or offenses, or of bribing or otherwise unlawfully influencing a public official or employee of any state or the United States, or of any crime, whether a felony or misdemeanor involving any gambling activity or physical harm to individuals or involving moral turpitude;

(8) Fails to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that he is qualified in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

WAC 230-03-085 Denying, suspending, or revoking an application, license or permit states:

(1) Commits any act that constitutes grounds for denying, suspending, or revoking licenses or permits under RCW 9.46.075; or

(2) Has been convicted of, or forfeited bond on a charge of, or pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor or felony crime involving physical harm to individuals. "Physical harm to individuals" includes any form of criminal assault, any crime involving a threat of physical harm against another person, or any crime involving an intention to inflict physical harm on another person; or

(5) Is serving a period of probation or community supervision imposed as a sentence for any juvenile, misdemeanor, or felony criminal offense, whether or not the offense is covered under RCW 9.46.075(4).

RCW 9.46.153 Applicants and licensees-Responsibilities and duties states:
(The following subsection applies.)

(1) It shall be the affirmative responsibility of each applicant and licensee to establish by clear and convincing evidence the necessary qualifications for licensure of each person required to be qualified under this chapter, as well as the qualifications of the facility in which the licensed activity will be conducted.

II.

Jurisdiction of this proceeding is based on 9.46 RCW, Gambling, chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, and WAC Title 230.

The licensee will have the opportunity to have a hearing on the alleged violations. In order to have a hearing or discuss settlement options, the enclosed Request for Hearing must be completed and returned to the Gambling Commission within 23 days from the date of the mailing of this notice.

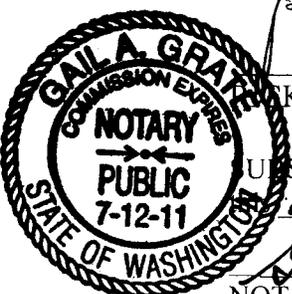

Based on RCW 34.05.440, failure to return this document will result in the entry of a default order REVOKING your license.
