Raffles

What is a raffle? (RCW 9.46.0277)
A raffle is a gambling activity, where tickets are sold and prizes are awarded based on chance.

Who can offer raffles?
• Individuals and commercial businesses cannot offer raffles, even if the money is given to charity.
• Only certain charitable or nonprofit organizations can offer raffles (see below for qualifications).
• Credit Unions, Cities, Counties, Towns and Executive Branch State Employees can offer raffles (see back page for details).

Do you qualify to offer raffles? (RCW 9.46.0209)
• Your charitable or nonprofit organization must be organized and operating for at least 12 months before offering a raffle; and
• Your organization’s by-laws or articles of incorporation must state you are organized and operating only for one or more of the following purposes:
  • Agricultural
  • Athletic
  • Charitable
  • Civic
  • Educational
  • Fraternal
  • Patriotic
  • Political
  • Social

Or be one of the following:
• Agricultural Fair
• Fraternal Society
• Religious Society
• Church
• Grange

If your organization has a stated purpose(s) other than those listed above, you don’t qualify to offer raffles.

Lobby groups typically don’t qualify, even with a 501c rating from the IRS.

A school’s PTA or ASB will usually qualify to offer raffles.
Each group within a PTA or ASB (choir, band, debate) is part of the organization and does not have to individually meet the qualifying requirements. However, money raised and number of raffles conducted by each group counts towards the limits for the entire PTA or ASB.

Use of raffle proceeds:
Proceeds must be used towards your organization’s stated purpose. However, proceeds may go to the charitable benefit of a specific person, but only if you get approval from us before offering the raffle.

Whether your raffle is licensed or unlicensed, you must sell tickets, determine winners, and award prizes only in Washington State.

LICENSED RAFFLES

You must get a license if:
• More than two public raffles are offered in a calendar year.
• Gross revenue from the two unlicensed public raffles will exceed $5,000 in a calendar year.
• Gross revenue from unlicensed members-only raffles will exceed $5,000 in a calendar year.
• You have a bingo or amusement game license and want to offer public raffles.
• Tickets are sold by someone other than a member of your organization. Unpaid volunteers may sell tickets, but only under the supervision of a member (WAC 230-11-030).
• Firearms are awarded as prizes (WAC 230-06-025).
• Offering a joint raffle with another organization (WAC 230-11-012).
• Giving noncash incentives for selling tickets (WAC 230-11-035).
• Discounted tickets are sold at.
  o Public raffles: (WAC 230-11-025).
