

STATE OF WASHINGTON
GAMBLING COMMISSION

“Protect the Public by Ensuring that Gambling is Legal and Honest”

Media Release: Olympia, Washington: January 14, 2015

Amy B. Hunter appointed as Deputy Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission.

Amy Hunter has been appointed Deputy Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission. She has been with the agency since 1994. She has overseen the agency’s legal department, communication functions and worked on legislative issues since 1998. Amy graduated from Kansas State University with a degree in Sociology/Criminal Justice and has a law degree from Seattle University School of Law.

Director Trujillo, who appointed Ms. Hunter, said “Amy is highly regarded in public service circles and brings with her demonstrated dedication, unquestionable commitment and a substantial network of legislative, legal, and government contacts”

In addition to Amy’s legal education and experience, she gained law enforcement experience as both a police dispatcher and a reserve police officer.

The Gambling Commission is a limited jurisdiction law enforcement agency and the only statewide agency devoted to gambling licensing, regulation and enforcement. Five citizens are appointed by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, to act as part-time Commissioners for a single six-year term.

The Gambling Commission typically meets once a month to discuss administrative issues, approve new gambling licenses, discuss and approve proposed rule changes, and take action regarding the revocation or suspension of gambling licenses. To learn more about what we do, visit www.wsgc.wa.gov.
