

Rule Making Process

When the Gambling Commission officially announces a rule, it does so through permanent rulemaking, expedited rulemaking or emergency rulemaking.

The permanent rulemaking process

- Stage 1 A Preproposal Statement of Inquiry (CR-101 form) is filed with the Code Reviser's Office.
- Stage 2 A Proposed Rulemaking (CR-102 form) and the proposed rule language are filed with the Code Reviser's Office. Notice of the public hearing date and comment period are provided on the CR-102 form.
- Stage 3 A Rulemaking Order of Adoption (CR-103 form) and the final rule language are filed with the Code Reviser's Office.
- Stage 4 Normally, rules become effective January 1 or July 1. However, the request of the public or staff, the Commission may vote to have the rule become effective 31 days after filing the CR-103 form with the Code Reviser's Office.

The expedited adoption rulemaking process

- Stage 1 Expedited Rulemaking (CR-105 form) and the expedited proposed language or expedited repeal language are filed with the Code Reviser's Office.
- Stage 2 A Rulemaking Order of Adoption (CR-103 form) and the rule adoption language are filed with the Code Reviser's Office.
- Stage 3 The rule adoption or repeal becomes effective 31 days after filing the Rule Making Order of Adoption with the Code Reviser's Office unless a later date is specified.

The emergency rulemaking process

- Stage 1 A Rulemaking Order of Adoption (CR-103 form) and the rule adoption language are filed with the Code Reviser's Office.
- Stage 2 The rule becomes effective upon filing, unless a later date is specified.
