RULES OF PLAY

RULES OF PLAY

Wild Monkey Pai Gow is a variation of the standard Pai Gow Poker game and may include optional bonus wagers. All rules pertaining to Pai Gow Poker as posted on the WSGC website will remain the same except as noted in these rules of play.

Casino operators choose which of the bonus wagers they will offer. Casino operators establish the minimum and maximum wagering limits and must not allow wagering limits to exceed the authorized limits set out in WAC 230-15-040 and WAC 230-15-140. On games where there are more than 4 wagering options for players, the players are limited to wagering on a maximum of four of the options; and one of the four wagers must be limited to $5.00. Card room operators are required to post this four wagering spot restriction on the layout of the game.

1. Wild Monkey Pai Gow is dealt in the same manner as standard Pai Gow Poker, except after all hands have been dealt to the player and dealer positions the dealer will then take the top card off the remaining four undealt cards and add it to the dealer's hand -- so the dealer's hand receives eight cards.
2. Players arrange their two poker hands in the same manner as standard Pai Gow Poker; and then once the player places each hand into its designated area on the table layout, the player may optionally double down the original bet. To double down, the player places a second wager beside the original bet; this double down wager can be any amount up to the amount of the original bet.
3. If the player is dissatisfied with his or her hand, the player may Surrender. This option allows the player to drop out of a hand after seeing the seven cards dealt to him or her. The player forfeits half of the original bet. This decision must be made before, and instead of, setting two poker hands on the table layout.
4. After all players have set their hands, and any double downs or surrenders have been made, the dealer will reveal his or her eight cards and using the best seven of eight cards will set the dealer-hand according to the "house way." The unused eighth card will be set aside and then discarded. If it is revealed that the Joker is one of the eight cards in the dealer's hand, the dealer must automatically discard the Joker and use the remaining seven cards to set the dealer's hand -- so in other words, the dealer's hand is never allowed to use the Joker as a part of setting its two poker hands.
5. Once the dealer's hand is set, player-hands are compared with the dealer's hand and are resolved in the same manner as standard Pai Gow Poker. All winning bets, and any winning double down wagers, are paid even money (1 to 1).

Dealer Joker Bonus Wager

In addition to the standard Pai Gow Poker bet, casinos may offer the Dealer Joker bonus wager. The Dealer Joker bonus wager will win or lose based solely on whether or not the dealer's eight-card hand contains the Joker: the Player wins the Dealer Joker bonus wager if the dealer's eight-card hand does contain the Joker, and the winning bonus wager is paid according to one of the following paytables; the Player loses the Dealer Joker bonus wager if the dealer's eight-card hand does not contain the Joker.

Dealer Joker Bonus Wager Paytables:

Paytable:	1	2
Dealer's hand after discarding the Joker:	Pays	Pays
Nine-High Pai Gow	300 to 1	100 to 1
Ten-High Pai Gow	100 to 1	50 to 1
Jack-High Pai Gow	25 to 1	25 to 1
Other Pai Gow	10 to 1	10 to 1
No Pai Gow	4 to 1	4 to 1

Royal Riches Bonus Wager

In addition to the standard Pai Gow Poker bet, casinos may offer the Royal Riches bonus wager. The player wins the Royal Riches bonus wager if the Player's seven-card hand makes any of the winning hands listed in the paytables in Appendix A. Only the highest winning hand is paid. If the Player's Royal Riches bonus wager equals or exceeds $5.00, then Envy Bonus payouts are also enabled for certain winning hands, as identified in the paytables in Appendix A. The Player wins an Envy Bonus payout if another player at the same table achieves a four of a kind or higher. A Player cannot win an Envy Bonus payout based on his or her own hand or based on the dealer's hand.

Dealer Pai Gow Bonus Wager

In addition to the standard Pai Gow Poker bet, casinos may offer the Dealer Pai Gow bonus wager. The player wins the Dealer Pai Gow bonus wager when the dealer's hand contains a "Pai Gow" (that is, a hand that does not contain a pair or better) and the player's hand beats the dealer's hand. The bonus wager is paid according to one of the following payables.

In addition to the standard Pai Gow Poker bet, casinos may offer the Player Pai Gow Insurance bonus wager. The player wins the Player Pai Gow Insurance bonus wager when their own hand contains a “Pai Gow” (that is, a hand that does not contain a pair or better). The Ace is always considered high and the Joker is always considered an Ace. The bonus wager is paid according to one of the following payables.
