These reasons shall include, but not be limited to, cases wherein the applicant or certified employee, or any person with any interest therein:

(The following subsections apply.)

(1) Has violated, failed or refused to comply with the provisions, requirements, conditions, limitations or duties imposed by chapter 9.46 RCW and any amendments thereto, or any rules adopted by the Commission pursuant thereto, or when a violation of any provision of chapter 9.46 RCW, or any Commission rule, has occurred upon any premises occupied or operated by any such person or over which he or she has substantial control.

(8) Fails to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that he, she or it is qualified in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(10) Has pursued or is pursuing economic gain in an occupational manner or context which is in violation of the criminal² or civil public policy of this state if such pursuit creates probable cause to believe that the participation of such person in gambling or related activities would be inimical to the proper operation of an authorized gambling or related activity in this state.

or indirectly take or receive in money, goods, or things in action, or in any other way, any greater interest for the loan or forbearance of any money, goods, or things in action.

² RCW 9A.82.045 Collection of unlawful debt. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to collect any unlawful debt. A violation of this section is a class C felony.

RCW 9A.82.010 Definitions. (21) "Unlawful debt" means any money or other thing of value constituting principal or interest of a debt that is legally unenforceable in the state in full or in part because the debt was incurred or contracted: (a) In violation of any one of the following: ... 3) RCW 9.46.153(1) Applicants and licensees - responsibilities and duties

It shall be the affirmative responsibility of each applicant and licensee to establish by clear and convincing evidence the necessary qualifications for licensure of each person required to be qualified under this chapter, as well as the qualifications of the facility in which the licensed activity will be conducted.

Hanh T. Tran loaned money to individuals, primarily card room employees, at rates higher than legally permissible. Between October 2012 to April 2013, Ms. Tran loaned at least $3,000 and in addition, allegedly loaned $130,500 at a rate higher than is allowed by law. Hanh T. Tran has demonstrated willful disregard for complying with state laws, and that she poses a threat to the effective regulation of gambling or increases the likelihood of unfair or illegal practices. Ms. Tran has failed to establish clearly and convincingly that she is qualified to be licensed, as required by RCW 9.46.153(1). As a result, grounds exist to revoke Hanh T. Tran's license based on RCW 9.46.075(1),(8), and (10), and WAC 230-03-085(1), (3), and (8).

IV.

Hanh T. Tran acknowledges that she has read the Notice of Administrative Charges, and understands the facts contained in it. While not admitting to the facts and violations specified above in section III, Ms. Tran agrees that if the Gambling Commission established the alleged facts in the case at issue, there would be sufficient evidence of the violations as stated in the administrative charges.

- 1) Hanh T. Tran has agreed to waive her right to a hearing based on this Settlement Order.
- 2) No later than June 5, 2015, Hanh T. Tran shall surrender her Card Room Employee license for one (1) year. This will result in her license no longer being active and she will not be able to conduct Class III Employee or Card Room Employee activity for one year from the date of this Settlement Order.
- 3) For one (1) year from this Settlement Order, Ms. Tran agrees to not be physically present in any Washington State Gambling Commission's licensed premises, or in any premises with a pending Washington State Gambling Commission application. Unless licensed, certified, or otherwise approved by the Washington State Gambling Commission, Hanh T. Tran agrees to have no involvement in the ownership, operation, or financing of any activity regulated by the Washington State Gambling Commission.
- 4) The licensee must not violate the terms of this Settlement Order, Washington's gambling statutes or regulations, or any other ordinance, statute, court order or regulation during the one

(1) year term.

5) If the licensee violates the terms of this Settlement Order, the licensee agrees the Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, pursuant to this settlement, has sole discretion to determine whether the licensee has violated any term of this settlement. In the event the Director determines that a violation of this section or any other type of violation has occurred, he may revoke the license(s) issued to Ms. Tran by mailing or delivering a Notice of Administrative Charges to the licensee. The licensee shall be afforded the opportunity to have an Adjudicative Proceeding, which includes a hearing on the alleged violations.

6) In the event Ms. Tran applies for a certification or gambling license, she will be subject to all the Commission's investigative procedures for processing an application for a certification or gambling license. No promises or assurances have been made to Ms. Tran that she will receive a license or certification from the Commission should she apply. However, the Commission shall not base a denial of his license based solely on the facts of this case.
